ATTORNEY PROFILE

Having secured millions of dollars for victims of negligence, Gregory J. Bubalo is known nationally for his relentless pursuit of justice. As managing partner of Bubalo Law PLC and Becker Law Office, he handles cases that involve all aspects of personal injury, including the following: motorcycle, motor vehicle and trucking accidents; medical malpractice and nursing home abuse; premises liability; drug product and medical device litigation; wrongful death; and class action lawsuits.

Mr. Bubalo's track record is impressive. When a neurosurgeon suffered career-ending injuries due to a slip and fall at a hospital, Mr. Bubalo secured nearly $17 million in a jury verdict. He has also held a diet pill manufacturer responsible for millions of dollars in damages.

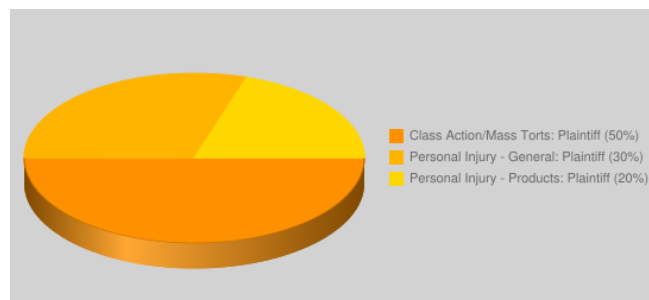

After receiving a Bachelor of Science and graduating Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Illinois College in 1977, Mr. Bubalo went on to graduate Magna Cum Laude with a Juris Doctor from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law in 1980.

Though he has a reputation as a fierce advocate for plaintiffs, Mr. Bubalo actually started his career on the other side of the courtroom. He was a medical malpractice defense attorney for years. That experience has proven invaluable in his work today, where he applies what he knows about defensive strategies.

A published author, Mr. Bubalo is also a member of the Kentucky Justice Association.

When he is not at his practice, Mr. Bubalo enjoys spending time with his wife, as well as skiing and cycling.
